Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions.

People are busy nowadays and don't have much time to cook meals. This leads to skipping meals and unhealthy snacking. Almost half of people around the world sometimes replace meals with quick bites. There is a big opportunity for companies to create healthy snacks that people can eat throughout the day. Many people are trying to eat healthier, so there's a demand for good –for- you snacks and meal replacements.

The most common reason for snacking is hunger. People want something quick and easy to fill them up between meals or even instead of meals. Cereal bars and cookies that are healthy are popular choices. People are looking for healthier options, so they often check the ingredients list before buying a snack.

Another reason why people snack is to relax. Busy lives can be stressful, and people sometimes eat to unwind. Carbs are comforting, which is why they are so popular. In fact, half of Europeans say they're buying more comfort food than ever before. However, even people enjoying comfort food would like healthier choices. There's a market for enjoyable foods and drinks that are also good for you.
